

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
MIDDLE DISTRICT OF GEORGIA

In re:

Local Rules of the
United States Bankruptcy Court
Middle District of Georgia

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER #133 ON CHANGE TO LOCAL RULES
EFFECTIVE MARCH 30, 2020

It is hereby ordered that the following rule of the United States Bankruptcy Court of the Middle District of Georgia is added effective March 30, 2020:

LBR 2090-1 Attorneys – Admission to Practice

While it has been a longstanding requirement that attorneys who practice in the Bankruptcy Court of the Middle District of Georgia must be admitted to the District Court of the Middle District of Georgia, the requirement is not codified in our local rules as is the case in many other districts. Similarly, the requirement regarding pro hac vice admissions is not codified in our local rules. The new local rule provides that “Any attorney appearing in this Court shall have complied with the Middle District of Georgia District Court Local Rule 83.1.1 for attorney admissions or 83.1.2.C for pro hac vice admissions.”

For reference, the Middle District of Georgia District Court Local Rules can be found at:
<https://www.gamd.uscourts.gov/local-rules>.

On or after the effective date as noted above, this rule shall govern all proceedings then pending or thereafter brought to the court.

It is further ordered that this rule be entered in the record upon the minutes of the court for each of the statutory divisions and that copies be made available by the Clerk of Court to officers and members of the Bar of this court and furnished to the Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 30 day of March, 2020.

JAMES P. SMITH
Chief Judge
United States Bankruptcy Court
